

Office of Assistant Treasurer U. S.,

New York, February 9, 1883.

Hon. A. London Snowden,

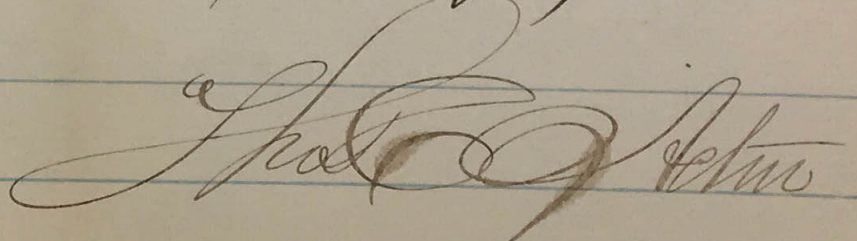

Supt. Mint U.S., Phila.,

Sir:

Acknowledging the receipt of your letter of the 8th. inst., I herewith enclose printed letter, received from your institution on the 7th. inst.

Under the impression conveyed in that letter, that we would be compelled to wait until prior orders had been ratified, I desired to call your attention to the demands upon us, with the hope that you would not subject us to unnecessary delay; - and I beg to express my thanks to you for the prompt response, as soon as it came under your personal observation.

I am very Respectfully

Asst. Treas. U.S.

Hon. A. Loudon Snowden,
Supt. Mint U.S., Phila.,

Sir:

Acknowledging the receipt of your letter of the 8th inst., I herewith enclose printed letter, received from your institution on the 7th inst.

Under the impression conveyed in the that letter, that we would be compelled to wait until prior orders had been satisfied, I desired to call your attention to the demands upon us, with the hope that you would not subject us to unnecessary delay; - and I beg to express my thanks to you for the prompt response, as soon as it came under your personal observations.

I am very Respectfully
Thos. C. Acton
Asst. Treasurer U.S.
